

Ice Melt Contest: February 18 - April 9

1. Preparing the well floor for the ice installation
2. Milk crates and plastic drip pan to support 6,300 pounds of ice
3. Dropping ice into the well, February 18
4. Blocks of ice and the hatch above
5. Spreading wood shavings for insulation
6. The stack of ice blocks

7

7. Ice Mound, February 18. See frozen Party Rat and Devil Duck in the top block, shoe farther down

8. Other items that were frozen in the mound

9. Party Rat with George's Hatchet

10. George Washington is revealed as the ice melts

10

9

8

11. Your Ice Well Contest Team
12. Our scientific temperature sensor, March 7. A little warm to preserve ice!
13. The Ice Mound, March 7. We used bus tubs to collect melting ice
14. Our "scientific" water bucket which we used to haul the water out.
15. Close up of an ice block, March 6.

16

17

19

16. Nearing the end of the contest, March 26

17. Stick a fork in it, the contest is over, April 9

18. The reason we are working so hard—to restore this architectural gem...

19...and to tell the ice well story to all ages!

18